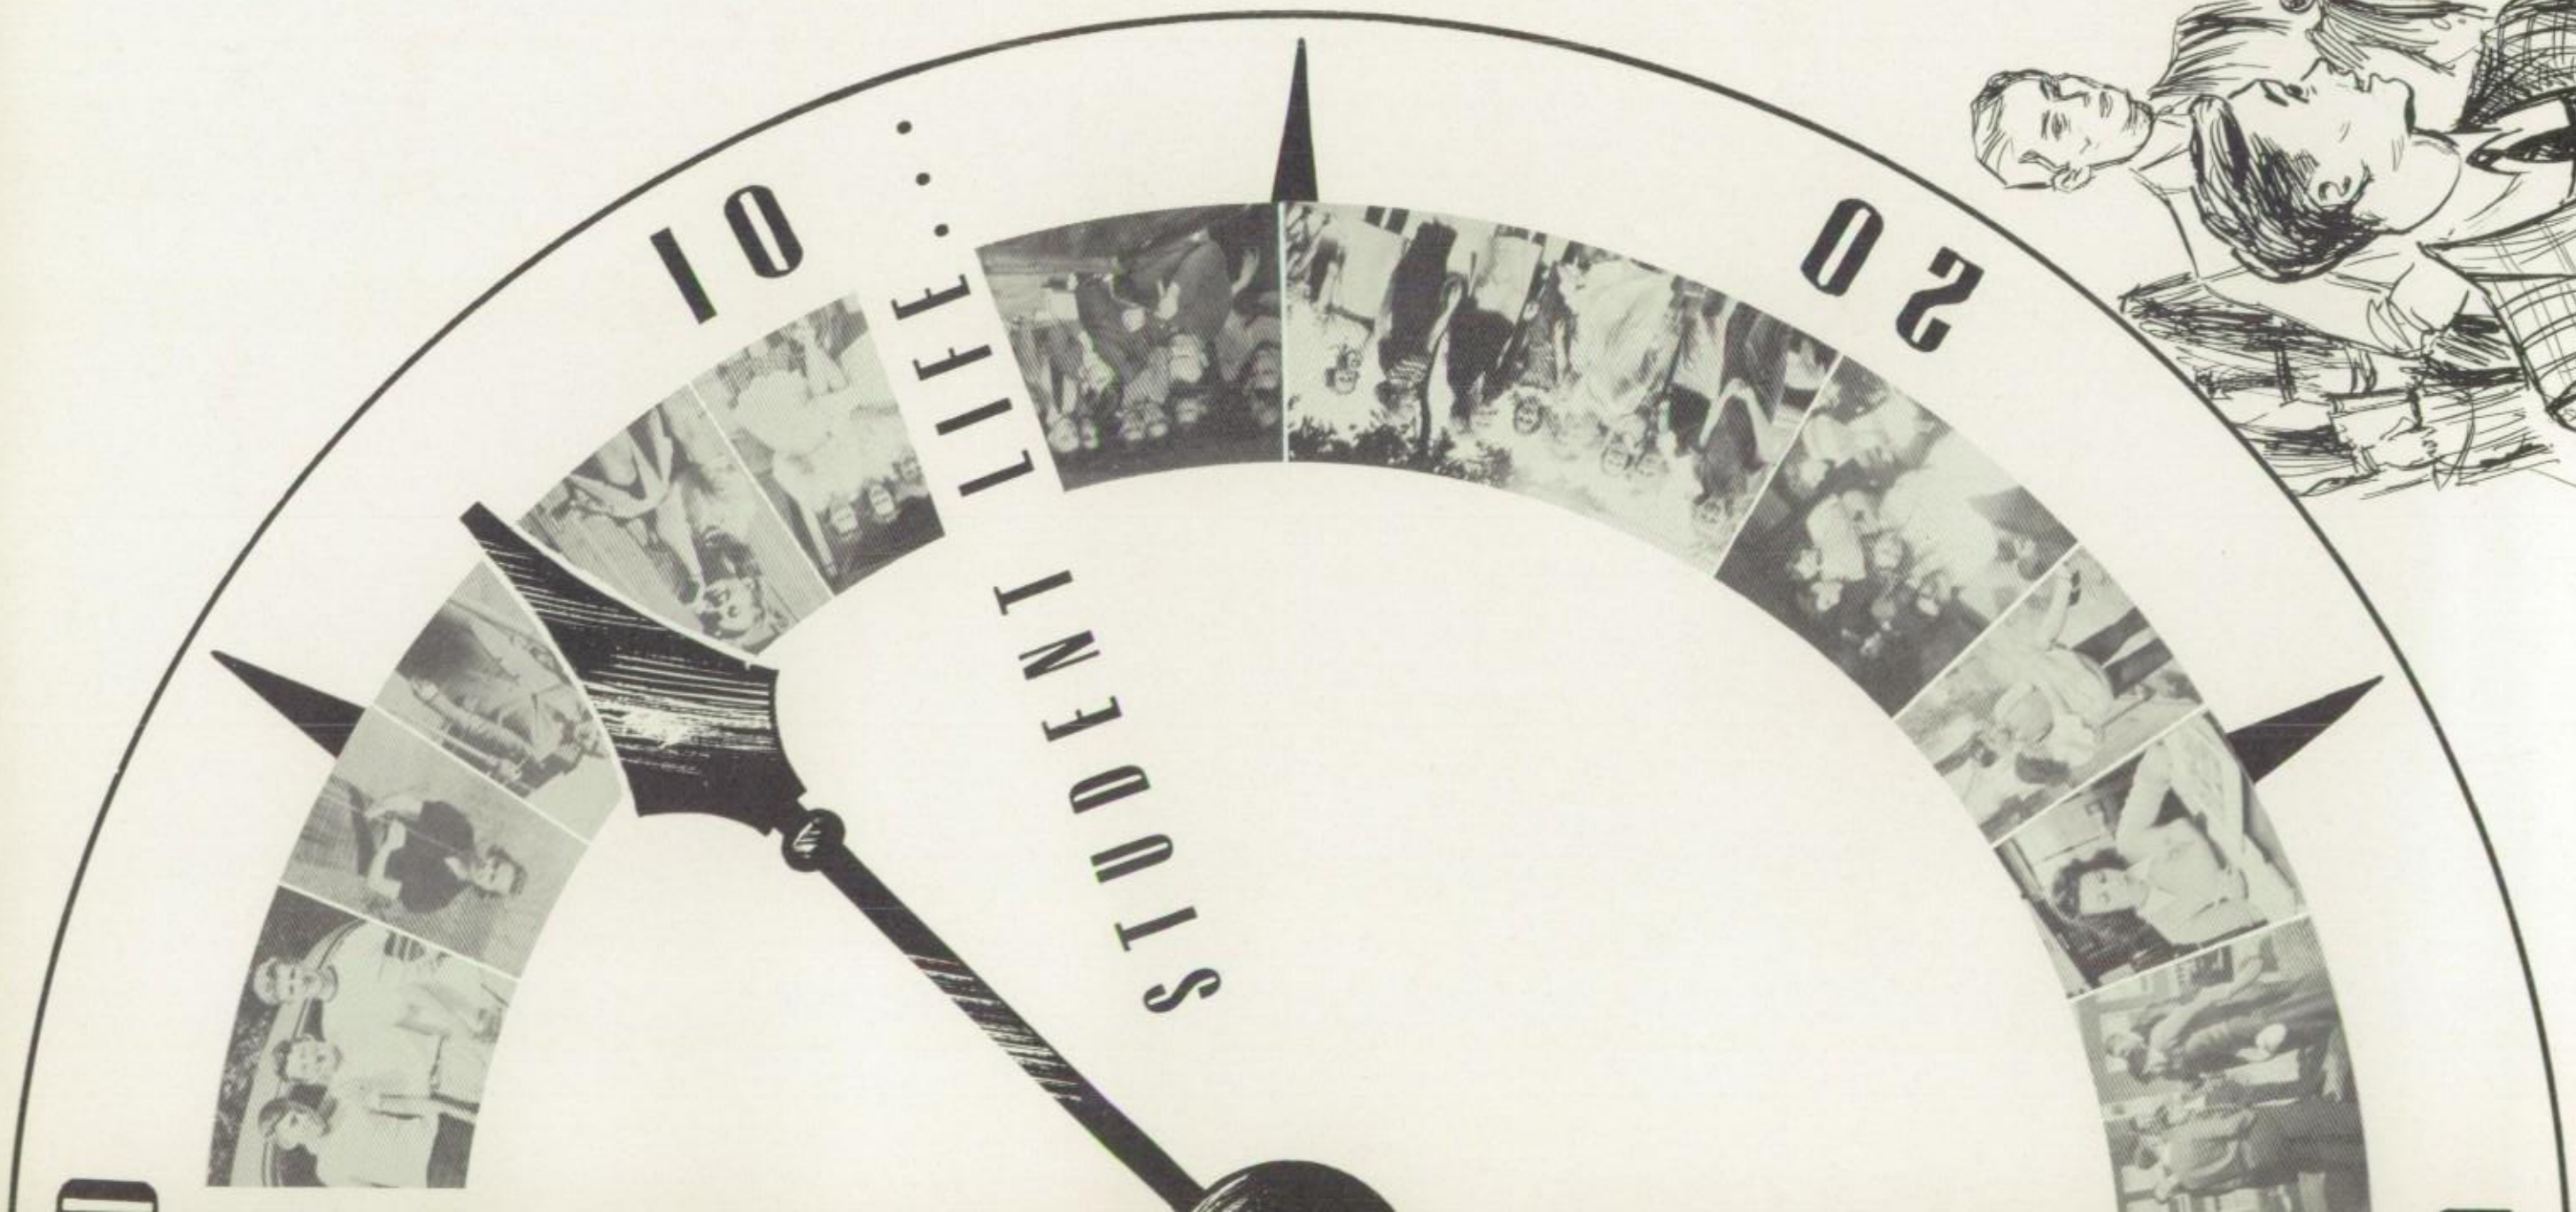
LEWISTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

LEWISTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA



FOREWORD . . .

It is the aim of the Lore staff in presenting this book to strengthen the ties that bind us to our Alma Mater. We hope that in years to come it will bring to mind vivid and colorful memories of our high school, its spirit, its loyalty, its tradition, and its prestige.

DEDICATION

With sincere appreciation for his valuable advice and guidance and willing cooperation in all our activities during our three years in high school, we the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-two dedicate this Lore to our honored class adviser, Mr. Earl J. McMillen.

7 O'CLOCK

. . . WAKE UP AND LIVE . . . .

OLD L. H. S.

Now we all march on together,
On thru fair and stormy weather;
And whene'er we have a fight to fight
We'll win it for the cause that is right
So our pride and spirit raises
As we stand and sing her praises,
For we proudly do our school revere
And greet her with a rousing triple cheer.
For
Old L. H. S. to you your sons are ever loyal,
Old L. H. S. your name will ever cherished be;
Old L. H. S. we'll give a cheer for that royal,
Old L. H. S. our Alma Mater dear.

On we'll march to fame and honor,
In her name we'll fight and conquer;
On the diamond, football, field, or track
The enemy we'll steadily hold back.
With a vim the fight beginning,
For old L. H. S. we're winning;
When the battle's o'er and the contest done,
Our team will have another victory won.

AND HISTORY

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It seems as if it were only yesterday that we entered Lewistown High School as proud, confident Sophomores. Although the activities and studies were very different from those which we were accustomed to, we soon adapted ourselves to Senior High School life. The following officers were elected at our first class meeting: President, William Reeder; vice president, Joan Apgar; secretary, Betty Knudson; treasurer, Sam Gilbert. Members of our class participated in many activities during the year such as Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Dramatic Club, Glee Club, and the various fields of athletics. We had the distinction of being the first class to hold a Sophomore party, which proved to be a great success. By the end of the year we had become a well-established pillar of L. H. S. and looked forward to the continuance of our success.

Our first step as Juniors was to hold a class meeting and elect the following officers: president, William Reeder; vice president, Joan Apgar; secretary, Betty Knudson; treasurer, Sam Gilbert. We also chose as our class colors, cardinal red and white. Our caps and pennants were selected and sent for. Again we set an example for other classes to follow by receiving them in record time. Before the first semester was completed, the campus of L. H. S. was brightened by the many red and white caps worn by members of our class.

The strength and success of our athletic teams and the various other activities was bolstered by the participation of members of our class. The outstanding feature of the year was our Junior Prom. Since the combined colors of the Senior class and our class were red, white and blue, a patriotic theme for the decorations was used. The gym was converted into a large ship and everyone present was very well pleased with the nautical atmosphere created. We ended another successful year in Senior High School by electing the following officers for our final and most important year: president, Sam Gilbert; vice president, Joan Apgar; secretary, Betty Knudson; treasurer, Jack Gracey.

We entered our last year with the determination to make it the happiest in our high school life. It was necessary for us, as Seniors, to undertake many responsibilities. The new leaders of the Student Council, Robert Myers, boy president, and Dorothy Hughes, girl president, undertook the task of presiding over the governing body of L. H. S. Our athletes finished up two and three years of varsity competition in the various fields, and many others ended their services in the outstanding organizations of the school. The Lore staff was elected with Jacquelyne Gracey, editor-in-chief; Marilyn Boyer, assistant editor-in-chief; Richard Coleman, business manager, and Glenn Dettrey, assistant business manager.

Pictures were taken and our rings and pins were bought as we moved into the finale of our high school careers. We came to our graduation activities with a feeling which was a mixture of happiness and sorrow. Our nation was at war! Realizing this, we were very conservative in the planning of our activities. After much consideration we selected as our class play, A Waltz Dream, which proved to be a great success.

Now Senior Day, Junior Prom, Dinner Dance, Alumni Dance, and Commencement are gone, but they will live everlastingly in our hearts.

We can be proud and thankful that we spent our three years of high school life in old L. H. S. The knowledge, friends, and experience which we have gained from this, our Alma Mater, will aid us in facing the problems of a world which has been disrupted by hate, greed, and jealousy. We hope that we can use to a good advantage the many lessons taught us in dear old L. H. S., so that we can make our future life as successful as that which was spent in our Alma Mater.

We Are Factory Equipped for Testing Watches

Some new watches will not keep good time because of the fact that the time between the manufacturer and user is too long and the oil has deteriorated. Many jewelers, department stores, and catalogue houses are not equipped to service a watch. They only think of selling.

In our store we have the most modern instruments for testing watches and can serve our customers better.

GRADUATION MEMORIES

of the day will live for years in a fine watch. Longine, Hamilton, Elgin, Gruen and Bulova Watches. Also many other articles for Graduation Gifts.
